Family Literacy Day – Guest readers

- This year's theme: "Make mealtime family learning time!" Mealtime is a great opportunity to explore literacy through reading and following recipes, writing meal plans, and creating shopping lists together as the family.
- To encourage literacy engagement as a family activity, and as a connection to our food studies activities in ADST this term, we are inviting families to send in a copy of a favourite family recipe! We will be sharing sheets with students if they would like to submit a recipe.

"I can read anywhere" contest. Photos of students reading (posted in foyer)
